

DON VAGLICA, CPM®

SENIOR PROPERTY MANAGER

Career Summary

Don Vaglica serves as Senior Property Manager for the industrial division of Live Oak. Don is responsible for the management and oversight of over 2,500,000 square feet of industrial flex and manufacturing/bulk space in Austin, Texas. In addition, Don is responsible for daily departmental operations and procedures and coordinating owner relationships, customer issues and special projects.

Direct: 512.852.742
don@liveoak.com

Don's twenty-seven years of real estate experience include property management, construction management and commercial real estate appraisal. His strong property management, analytical and personal skills assist in identifying and meeting both clients' and tenants' needs, as well as solidifying tenant and owner relationships.

Affiliations

Member, Institute of Real Estate Management
Former Member, The Appraisal Institute - MAI Management

Education

Texas A&M University – Masters of Real Estate and Land Economics
Texas A&M University – Bachelors of Business Administration - Finance